

POLICY ON PRESERVATION OF RECORDS

PURPOSE

Master Circular – 'Know Your Customer' (KYC) Guidelines – Anti Money Laundering Standards (AML) - 'Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 - Obligations of NBFCs in terms of Rules notified thereunder' dated 1st July 2015,

NBFCs should take appropriate steps to evolve a system for proper maintenance and preservation of account information in a manner that allows data to be retrieved easily and quickly whenever required or when requested by the competent authorities.

- (i) In terms of PML Amendment Act 2012, NBFCs should maintain for at least five years from the date of transaction between the NBFC and the client, all necessary records of transactions.
- (ii) NBFCs should ensure that records pertaining to the identification of the customers and their address obtained while opening the account and during business relationship, are properly preserved for at least five years after the business relationship is ended.
- (iii) NBFCs may maintain records of the identity of their clients, and records in respect of transactions in hard or soft format.
- (iv) NBFCs are required to pay special attention to all complex, unusual large transactions and all unusual patterns of transactions, which have no apparent economic or visible lawful purpose. The background including all documents/office records/memorandums pertaining to such transactions and purpose thereof should, as far as possible, be examined and the findings at branch as well as Principal Officer level should be properly recorded. These records are required to be preserved for ten years as is required under PMLA, 2002.

As per regulation 9 of the SEBI Listing Regulations, Company should classify documents in at least two categories as follows-
